Meeting for the 150th Anniversary on Oct 24th

St. Pat's at 7:30 pm

Communion Reflection... I am neither a man of letters nor of science, but I humbly claim to be a man of prayer. It is prayer that has saved my life. Without it I would have lost my reason long ago. If I did not lose my peace of soul, in the midst of my many trials, it is because of the peace that came over me through prayer. One can live several days without food, but not without prayer. Prayer is the key to each morning, and the lock to each evening. It is a sacred alliance between God and us. Let everyone try this experience, and they will find that daily prayer will add something new to their lives, something which cannot be found elsewhere.

Flowers for Our Lady of Guadalupe for the week of Oct 19th to Oct 25th are being offered by an anonymous donor.

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex... Let us never forget the fundamental importance, at every level, of respect for life and its protection at all stages—from conception to old age, and up to the moment of death. I hope this awareness will continue to grow, especially regarding access to medical care and medicines.

BIG THANK YOU!!! The CWL Members would like to extend a sincere thanks to all the local businesses who helped make the Pie Making Fundraiser a success. Fortinos Bolton, Cousins Market, No Frills, Cappuccino Bakery and the CWL members for their time and donations.

On the Lighter Side... A Sunday School teacher asked, "We have been learning about how powerful the kings and queens were in Biblical times. But there is a higher power. Who can tell me what it is?" Little Johnny blurted out, "I know, Aces."

A cross is hardly the kind of throne we would choose. And yet Jesus willingly endured the extreme pain and dreadful shame of the cross, so that we would never have to fear the dreaded consequences of our sin and shame. On Calvary's cross, Jesus bore the crushing burden of all of our filth and failures, and gave us in exchange the fullness of his pardon and peace. In response to the overwhelming love of our suffering Saviour, we are inspired to run with perseverance the race that He has set before us. All along the way on our journey of faith, God's Spirit moves us to proclaim the wonders of his love and to help our neighbours in need. What an encouragement and joy it is to know, not only that our Lord is running the race with us, but also that he will be there at the finish line to welcome us home. There on His glorious throne, we will see Him in all of His glory.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. Mary's and St. Pat's Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet, please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church.

Next meeting: Tues. Nov 4th at 7 pm at St. Pat's
Wed. Nov 5th at 7 pm St. Mary's

October is the Month of the Rosary... Catholics honour Mary in a special way under the title "Our Lady of the Rosary." Often we come together to pray the rosary publicly, perhaps before daily Mass in our parish churches. Each year we renew the prayer that has been such a large part of the prayer life of believers for many centuries.

Candy Collection... We are asking the children to donate some of the candy they receive on Halloween for children in the Third World. To these children, it could mean the difference between life and death.

Malnourishment stops the digestive system from working. The sugar in the candy helps the digestive system to re-start, thus saving the child. We are asking for hard candy (anything that will not melt in a Container) - NO CHOCOLATE PLEASE. This will be collected through our schools beginning, Oct 30th through Nov. 6th. To be distributed by Canadian Food For Children, Dr. Andrew Simone.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-859-5522. Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.

Thank you Very Much... To all the St. Pat's & St. Mary's parishioners who donated and helped decorate the church for Thanksgiving.

!!Turn Clocks Back 1 Hour!!

Have a wonderful week!!

Communion Reflection... One of my favourite photographs is of my nephew. In it, he just turned one and has been given an entire birthday cake to eat in the way that only a one year old can. His eyes are wide as he takes it all in, as if he cannot believe the immensity of it. Our understanding of divine grace—the undeserved love of God—must be something akin to my nephew's understanding of that cake. And "grace upon grace," well, that must somehow be something even more wondrous. With advent right around the corner, now is a wonderful time to repent and recall our sins, but such soul-searching recollection is meaningless outside of our faith in God's grace, which waits for us to show up at the table and dig in, a wide grin across our faces for all that we have been given so freely.

Seeing's not the same as observing. Seeing is automatic; observing isn't. Observing takes time and thought. When we observe, we're seeking to understand what and who we see. Paul saw things in Athens. But if he was to get a hearing for Jesus, he had to observe the Athenians, what they valued, what they didn't. When he spoke, he wasn't criticizing them; it was more like he was saying, "I get it. I worshipped my own piety and you worship these objects throughout your city. Now can we talk about the One you're missing?" True observing seeks to understand what others are going through. Everyone's going through something. In view of the way God observes us—as panicked sheep without a shepherd—we see to observe others, trying to find ways to bring Jesus to them. God observed us before we were even born. He had compassion on us. He knew Zacchaeus would be in that tree. He'd observed him from afar (Luke 19:1-10). Now it is our turn to rest our eyes on those God wants us to see and open their eyes to the message of salvation in Jesus.

Humpty Dumpty had a great fall!!

2nd Collection for World Mission Sunday Every parish across the world will celebrate world Mission Sunday this week. It is a global sign of the Universal church and Mission. Your prayers and donations will help support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is beginning and where it is new. World Mission Sunday is our chance to assist Catholic Communities throughout the world to become self sufficient and to flourish. By sharing the gift of faith we can bring hope to those who need it the most.

A Prayer for generosity

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labour and not to ask for reward,
save that of knowing that I do your will.
