Sunday of the Word of God 2023

"We declare to you what we have seen"
- 1 Jn 1:3

John, the beloved disciple of Jesus, wants to offer all followers of the Crucified and Risen Messiah what is most desirable: communion of everyone with the Father and the Son. Therefore, he cannot help but proclaim what he has seen and heard, together with the other early disciples of Christ. Their koinonia - the fruit of Easter - is based on precisely these three pillars: seeing, hearing, proclaiming. Proclaiming what has been experienced is about sharing, spreading to all humanity God's happiness, offered again to his creatures in the new creation even more abundantly than in the first creation.

Jesus Begins His Ministry & Calls the First Disciples

Heeding the Call of Christ "Come, follow me."

This is the beautiful invitation Jesus extends to His first disciples in the Gospel today. How often do we hear those same words, "come, follow me," in our own lives? The Lord is constantly calling us to follow Him. By reflecting on today's Gospel we can learn how we too can heed the call.

Firstly, it is important to remember that Jesus says to Peter and Andrew, "I will make you fishers of people." Jesus calls them to mission. So too, Jesus calls us to mission as well, the mission of being true stewards of Christ for His glory and the good of the Church. The Gospel records that when the disciples were called, they "immediately left their nets and followed Him. They saw in Christ all fulfillment and so followed Him immediately. We should strive to imitate this eagerness in following Christ, for the Lord doesn't want us to delay the plans He has in store for us.

Lastly, whenever we feel unworthy of the call of following Christ as stewards, we can take great consolation in the fact that Jesus chose lowly, uneducated fisherman for His first apostles. It is famously said that God doesn't call the qualified, but qualifies the called. If the Lord calls us to a certain mission, He will sustain us through that mission as well. So let us strive to heed the call of Christ and begin to follow Him, the one in whom all our fulfillment is found.

Missionary Discipleship with Julienne Stanz

Have you ever wondered what the term "missionary disciple" means? Who can become one? Julienne provides rich examples, stories, and ideas to help us deepen our faith in our walk with Christ... and to go on mission, even in our neighborhoods and communities.

Jesus Tells us to Repent

Today we hear about Jesus beginning His mission of preaching and healing the sick. The very first thing He tells the people is that they should repent from their sins.

Why do we need to repent of our sins? Why don't we just stop thinking about the bad things we did and start trying to be good?

Well, pretend your soul is like a garden. When you sin, it's like making a big hole in the ground. You can't grow flowers in a hole, and someone might trip on it and make the hole bigger. That's what can happen with sins too- little sins can cause bigger ones.

When you are sorry for your sins and go to confession it's like filling in the holes and planting flowers where they used to be. Keep your soul like a good garden and make sure you don't have any holes in it!

 as people make merry when dividing spoils.

For the _____ that burdened them,
 the pole on their shoulder,

 you have _____,
