From the Pastor's Desk

Have you ever found yourself in a position where you desperately wanted to reassure someone you loved that everything would be all right? The person you loved might have been caught in the grip of a terrible fear. They were terrified of what could happen in the future. And here you were, the only one who could offer any reassurance to them. In the end, all of your reasons and arguments didn't seem to convince the other that things would work out for the best. And so you ended up by appealing to the strength of your relationship with that person. You finally spoke the only words that seemed to make sense to you as you said to your fearful friend these two words, "Trust me." This seems to be the situation that Jesus found himself in as he was trying to reassure his friends that everything would turn out for the best. It seems that the most urgent reason he could offer to them was the fact that he had loved them all along, and he was not going to leave them orphaned at this most important time in his life – as he was getting ready to leave them. And so he pleaded with them for their trust. Jesus is asking us for our trust and promising us that he will not let us lose our way if we stay close to him. And even though we often can't see beyond the next turn in the road as we go through life, we have the remarkable assurance that Jesus can. He is the Way and will not allow us to lose the way.

Vocations... "The one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these..." Are you willing to do the work of the Lord as a priest, deacon, sister or brother? If God is calling you to serve him as a priest, deacon, brother or sister, contact Father Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-997 vocations@archtoronto.org vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.com

Communion Reflection...Imagine you are $1,000,000 in debt. Someone comes to you and writes out a cheque for $1,000,000 saying, "This is all for you, to cancel your debt. You don't have to do anything but reach out and take it and it's yours." in disbelief, you take the money and pay your debt. You are now debt free. You are totally and completely in the clear. That is exactly what Jesus did for us. Jesus paid the price for our sins. We did nothing to deserve it. We did nothing to earn it. It was a completely free gift but a gift that cost his life. Jesus died so that we may live with him.

The arrival of a couple's first child is a joyful occasion, to say the least. That joy also introduces some radical changes in the day to day life of the new parents. Sleepless nights and groggy days are more the rule than the exception during the first months of a parent's life with their new baby. Despite all the inconvenience and turmoil, the young parents look upon this miracle of life with gratitude to God for His precious gift. Not everyone is chosen to be a parent but all of us are called upon to accept changes in our life. We cannot remain children forever nor do we live in the same house with the same people all of our days. We grow up, move out and lead different lives with the passage of time. As much as we'd like, none of us can live in the past. Don't be afraid of where God is taking you. He already knows where He would like you to be. Why should we doubt His judgment?

LET US PRAY... GOD, give me eyes that I might see the work that can be done by me. GOD, give me ears that I might hear the cries of those who need me near. GOD, give me lips that I might speak comfort and peace to all that seek. GOD, give me a mind that I might know to help the ones that need me so. GOD, give me hands that I might do some large or simple task for you. GOD, give me prayer that I might pray for help and guidance every day. And this one thing above all else above, GOD, give me a heart that I might love.

Pastor's Easter Message
Missionaries in a remote are of China were translating the Bible into the local dialect. They ran into a problem when they realized they has no words for the translation of the "Holy Spirit." they debated what words they should use. They decided the best descriptive phrase was "resident boss." In that area of China when they spoke about the Trinity, the formula was the Father, Son and Resident Boss. It is the Lord who makes Israel holy. The Lord—through the Holy Spirit—makes us holy. Sure, we must cooperate, but it is all God's doing. We don't want to falsely believe that our growing in grace is due to our effort and sacrifice. Holiness comes from the work of the Holy Spirit. It is all grace. We must cooperate, yes but, more importantly, yield to God's desires.

Thank you for last weekends 2nd Collection for Share life

Communion Reflection...Going to heaven! I don't know when, pray do not ask me how. Going to heaven! How dim it sounds! And yet it will be done as sure as flocks go home at night unto the shepherd's arm. If you should get there first, save just a little place for me close to the two I lost. The smallest 'robe' will fit me, and just a bit of 'crown'; for you know we do not mind our dress when we are going home.

Emily Dickinson

May is The Month of Mary

One sign of the Christian spirit is that our thoughts turn to the spiritual side of each season of the year. The month of December brings thoughts of Christmas; March is linked in our thoughts with Lent and Easter; October is the month of the rosary. And the month of May brings us memories of Mary and reminds us of our devotion to her. The union of the month of May and Mary is quite natural. The very names are interchangeable. The mood of May is the mood of hope and joy; Mary is the mother of hope and the cause of our joy. Ancient traditions have embedded themselves in the language and customs of every Christian nation. Sometimes we might wonder if we have lost our spiritual joy. In Canada we have few, if any, religious fiestas or festivals or processions with music and banners. But the month of May reminds us that joy is for the taking. As we honor Mary, may our devotion to her lead us to love and serve God joyfully. We can let go of grudging, reluctant duty, remembering instead our loving God and Mary our Mother. Then there will be springtime in our souls and Mary's own Maytime in our hearts.

During the month of May we encourage you to pray the Rosary.

Last Call for photo sessions for our Parish Directory. The photo sessions are set up for Friday, May 22nd from 4:00 - 8:30 pm. We require a minimum of 14 parishioners to sign up for their picture. The Sign Up sheets will be available in the front foyer of both churches for the next 3 Sundays. The photos will be taken at St. Patrick's Church.

Loving God,
we thank you for the love of the mothers you have given us, whose love is so precious that it can never be measured, whose patience seems to have no end.

We pray for those mothers who fear they will run out of love or time, or patience. We ask you to bless them with your own special love.

Amen.
