Communion Reflection... Blessed are the faithful: they are like safe anchors in a world of broken moorings. Blessed are the just: they are to society what heaven is to bread. Blessed are the generous: they keep alive our faith in the essential goodness of people. Blessed are the caring: they shine like beacons in a world darkened by indifference. Blessed are the genuine: they glow like gems in a world of falseness. Blessed are those who are not afraid of sacrifice: on they day of the harvest they will sing for joy. And blessed are those who refuse to look back: they will be found worthy of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. Patrick's and St. Mary's Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church and on our website. Preparation meetings are held on the third Monday of every month at;

St. Patrick's next meeting Tues Sept 2nd, 7:00 pm.

St. Mary's, next meeting Wed. Sept 3rd, 7:00 pm.

You must attend a meeting to secure a Baptism date.

On the Lighter Side... A little boy was kneeling beside his bed with his mother and grandmother and softly saying his prayers, "Dear God, please bless Mummy and Daddy and all the family and please give me a good night's sleep." Suddenly he looked up and shouted, "And don't forget to give me a bicycle for my birthday!!" "There is no need to shout like that," said his mother. "God isn't deaf." "No," said the little boy, "but Grandma is."

Vocations... "Be on your guard against all kinds of greed." Grow rich in the sight of the Lord. Pray to know God's Will, especially if you think He's calling you to a Church vocation. What do you hope for in the future? If God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Pope Francis @Pontifex

The Christian faith is fundamentally an encounter with Jesus Christ. If we truly believe in Jesus, we must try to act like Jesus did: encounter others, encounter our neighbours, so as to share the saving truth of the Gospel with them.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office at 905-859-5522.

Have a Blessed Week

Today's Quote: The Church isn't a museum for the Good people. It's a hospital for the broken.

As we sort through the mail each day there is nothing we like less than seeing bills. Junk mail takes a close second. Every now and again we'll get a thank you note from someone to whom we've given a gift or expressed a condolence. It's rather pleasant to hear from somebody about how much they liked our gift or appreciated our message of support during a difficult time in their life. God does an awful lot for us and never sends a bill. There is no fee for the countless gifts and blessings He bestows upon us each day. Although He has no mailing address it might not be a bad idea to send Him a "Thank You" now and then. A little prayer of gratitude or a helping hand to someone less fortunate that our self might be a good way to thank Him for His many gifts and gestures of support throughout our life. No postage is necessary.

Nothing seems as permanent and unchanging as an object made of metal. While age and rust may change its appearance it still stays the same. All this seems so obvious until you watch a machinist or metal worker mold and shape a piece of metal into whatever he desires. It seems so malleable in their hands, not permanent at all. God can reshape hard hearts in the same way, both the stubborn hearts of others as well as our own. It may take a little longer than we'd like but when the job is done the results are awesome. Sometimes we aren't aware that our hearts even need reshaping. It's so easy to see the spiritual "rust" on another's heart but so difficult to see it on our own. God looks through the rust and brings out the beauty of the object underneath. We are his followers. Try His technique on your own heart first before trying to work on another's.

Next Weeks 2nd Collection for Catholic Missions in Canada / Scarborough Foreign Missions: Commonly known as "the shared collection," funds are split equally between our 2 Canadian missionary societies for the promotion of the Gospel at home and throughout the world. Catholic Mission in Canada (www.cmic.info) fosters and extends the blessings of the Catholic faith by supporting mission in regions of our country where the population is too small, or the economic situation of the community is too fragile for the people themselves to support their local Church and its ministry. The Scarborough Foreign Missions is involved in mission work overseas. Priests and lay missionaries work all over the world as they seek to serve in areas where the Gospel has presence in the life, history, culture and faiths of those they meet, and to live in solidarity with the poor of the world.

COMMUNION REFLECTION... Lord, I've no idea where I'm going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself. And the fact that I think I'm doing your will, doesn't mean that I'm actually doing it. But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you, and I hope that I have this desire. Though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death, I will not fear, for you are with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.

On the Lighter Side: A Sunday School teacher said to her children, "We have been learning about how powerful the kings and queens were in Biblical times. But there is a higher power. Who can tell me what it is?" Tommy blurted out, "I know, Aces."
