Vocations... "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." What do you hope for in the future? If God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997

vocations@archtoronto.org /

www.vocationstoronto.ca

Pope Francis@Pontifex The Christian faith is fundamentally an encounter with Jesus Christ. If we truly believe in Jesus, we must try to act like Jesus did: encounter others, encounter our neighbours, so as to share the saving truth of the Gospel with them.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Women's League, Women's Auxiliary pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office (905) 859-5522.

Mass on the Road this Summer For Mass schedules while traveling this summer, go to www.masstimes.org.

Looking for a Summer Student with painting experience. Pay is $20 dollars an hour. Anyone interested, please contact the parish office at (905) 859 - 5522.

Please Pray for those who died this past week especially † Baby Matteo Burin, † Bill McGuire and those who rest in our cemeteries.

Please Pray for Our Sick:

Communion Reflection... Blessed are the faithful: they are like safe anchors in a world of broken moorings. Blessed are the just: they are to society what leaven is to bread. Blessed are the generous: they keep alive our faith in the essential goodness of people. Blessed are the caring: they shine like beacons in a world darkened by indifference. Blessed are the genuine: they glow like gems in a world of falseness. Blessed are those who are not afraid of sacrifice: on they day of the harvest they will sing for joy. And blessed are those who refuse to look back: they will be found worthy of the Kingdom of Heaven.

From the Pastor's Desk

Most of us have imagined what it would be like to see Jesus face to face. If only we could turn back time for just a brief moment and stand in His presence, it would bring us such peace. We often forget that Jesus lived in a world with just as many uncertainties and threats to peace as our own. His people were subjects of the Roman Empire and had to do whatever they were told whenever the Emperor or local official told them. Our century is filled with reasons to feel helplessly at the mercy of events beyond our control. We have only a little more influence on world events than some of the people of Jesus' time. That's why His message has so much to say to us today. Jesus tried to teach His listeners that all the worldly authorities didn't matter. Jesus told Pilate, "You would have no power over me whatsoever; unless, it were given you from above." May we never forget Who is really in charge here. Please pray for peace and especially Ukraine and the Middle East saying a Hail Mary every day.

On the Lighter Side: A couple are sitting in their living room, sipping wine. Out of the blue, the wife says, "I love you." "Is that you or the wine talking?" asks the husband. "It's me," says the wife. "Talking to the wine."

Today's Quote: Taking time to be with God is the best place to find strength.

Have a wonderful week!!

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. Patrick's and St. Mary's Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church and on our website. Preparation meetings are held on the third Monday of every month at;

St. Patrick's, next meeting Mon Sept 22nd, 7:00 pm.

St. Mary's, next meeting Mon. Sept 29th, 7:00 pm.

You must attend a meeting to secure a Baptism date

Welcome new parishioners, to be a registered member of our parish is to have a sense of belonging to a Community of Faith. Please introduce yourself/family to the pastor and register as soon as possible by picking up any set of 2025 envelopes at the entrance. Please fill in the front for the first month's donations so that the information may be registered. Parishioners are invited to pick up a new set of envelopes (with a new number) and are kindly asked to fill in the front of the first month's donations as well.

From The Pastor's Desk

A dear friend, journeying through his share of adversity, came across a less-than-helpful quote by Augustine: "Whenever we suffer some affliction, we should regard it both as a punishment and as a correction." My friend was not exactly encouraged by this sentiment. We all see the reality of suffering in our own lives and the lives of those we love. To be sure, we often endure the consequences of our mistakes and sins. But if we see our heavenly Father only as one who punishes and corrects, we will never experience the peace, love and mercy of being his adopted children. Jesus did not come to take away every earthly hardship. Instead, he binds up our wounds with his own, transforming and redeeming us as we enter into the mystery of his death and resurrection.

Dear God,

I know that I am not perfect,
I know sometimes I forget to pray,
I know I have questioned my faith,
and I know sometimes I loose my temper.
Thank you for loving me unconditionally & giving me
another day to start over again!

As we grow older & hence wiser... We slowly realize that wearing a $300 or a $30 watch, they both tell the same time. Whether we carry a $300 or a $30 wallet/handbag, the amount of money inside is the same. Whether we drink a $10 or a $1 cup of coffee, the caffeine is the same. Whether the house we live in is 300 or 3,000 sq. ft., loneliness is the same. You will realize true inner happiness does not come from the material things of this world. Whether you fly first class or economy if the plane goes down, you go down with it. Therefore, I hope you realize when you have mates, buddies & old friends, brothers & sisters, who you chat with, laugh with, talk with, sing songs with, and talk about north-south-east-west or heaven & earth that is true happiness.
