Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
and do thou,

O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan,
and all evil spirits,

who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Life Chain

Life Chain is an annual pro-life event taking place across North America. Please join us this year at Hwy. 27 and King Rd. in Nobleton on Sunday, October 4, 2026, from 2:00–3:00 p.m. to pray and provide a prophetic witness to the community. You'll be provided a sign to hold during the hour proclaiming, "Abortion Kills Children," "Abortion Hurts Women," "Jesus Forgives & Heals," etc. When much of the rest of our society is content to ignore the youngest members of our human family, we must "speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves," as Proverbs 31:8 reminds us. Please see the poster in the foyer of the Church for more information.

Communion Reflection...A neighbour said he'd been raised with nine siblings. I said, "You must've gotten lost in the shuffle!" "We had ways of getting their attention!" He replied with a smile. We have our own ways of getting Jesus' attention. The lepers shouted at him, "Over here!" The long-ill woman was quieter and just touched his robe. Peter bragged to Jesus about all the things he'd do. One thread that runs through the gospels is that Jesus seemed to know those he encountered before he encountered them. The disciples were known prior to their calls. The woman at the well was known before she came for water. Jesus knew the thief before he uttered his plea. But sometimes we don't want Jesus' attention. We've disgraced ourselves and are ashamed. Peter was like that. Jesus gave him his full attention by ridding him of his disgrace. The reality is that we don't need to shout to get Jesus' attention. We have it already.

Have a Blessed Week!!
